1. It is indeed a pleasure to forward the attached correspondence concerning AIC Roger E. Thurston.
2. The initiative exhibited by Airman Thurston in this instance is an excellent example of the traditional conduct which enhances the prestige of the Air Police, and reflects most favorably on this command.
3. Please extend to Airman Thurston my appreciation for his cooperation in so ably resolving the problem of Reverend Lynes.

1. Airman Thurston has indeed set an example worthy of merit.
2. The cooperation and assistance rendered by him will long be remembered by Reverend Lynes. Airman Thurston has set an excellent example of the type of Air Policeman we have stationed at Westover AFB.
3. Please extend to Airman Thurston my appreciation for his excellent display of courtesy in resolving Reverend Lynes problem.
